

KHCPL Main

Children's Literacy

KHCPL can tailor a tour for Elementary Education college students, allowing them to explore classic and modern children's literature titles for newborns to fifth-graders — all while meeting class requirements.

Audience: College Students

Every Child Ready To Read

Introduce Early Childhood Development students to the Five Best Practices to help children get ready to read: talking, singing, reading, writing, and playing. Tour the Children's Department and gain hands-on experience.

Audience: College or High School Students

Passport Around the World

All aboard! Students will virtually travel the globe by using KHCPL's various resources to teach them about countries, cultures, and languages around the world.

Audience: Second- to Fifth-graders
